

A Report on NSS Camp NSS unit, R.G. Baruah College, Ghy-25

A five day NSS camp had been conducted by the NSS Unit, R.G. Baruah College, from 23rd to 27th April, 2016 at Patgaon, Rani, Kamrup, Assam under the sponsorship of the NSS unit, Gauhati University to inculcate the social responsibility among the students. The camp was conducted under the sincere and able guidance and strict supervision of Mr. Dipak Chakravorty Programme Officer of the NSS unit of the College and he was closely assisted by Mr. Samir Roy, Mr. Dipankar Basak and Mr. Kabin Sarma, Assistant Professor(s) of the College as per the following schedule:

23rd April, 2016

The camp was inaugurated by a Cleaning drive at Public Durga puja Temple premises measuring about five bighas of land in presence of the local people comprising of the President, Secretary, Durga Puja Temple committee. In the cleaning drive 20 volunteers of the NSS unit participated to make the programme a success.

24th April, 2016

The 2nd day of the camp was started by again a cleaning drive in the whole patgaon village. During the time of drive the NSS volunteers along with the Programme officer and the other teachers have given some thought and knowledge to the local villagers about the health and hygiene & usefulness of being clean in life. The 2nd day proceedings have been successfully completed.

25th April 2016

The 3rd day was started with a plantation programme in Durga Mandir premises in presence of the local people and the volunteers and the programme officer have requested the local people to take care of the tree sapling and also awareness the people, how important a tree is in balancing the environment. The programme was followed by the Socio-Economic survey among the local people of the patgaon village

26th April, 2016

On that day the NSS volunteers have constructed a road from the main road the Jobe Patgaon L.P. School. The length of the road is about 100 ft.

27th April, 2016

An awareness programme on Women empowerment among the Women of the Patgaon village at Jobe Patgaon L.P. School followed by a plantation programme at Jobe patgaon L.P. School was conducted on the 5th and closing day of the NSS camp.

After successful completion of the five day NSS camp at Patgaon village, Rani, the NSS Volunteers of the NSS unit, R.G. Baruah College have returned to the College with hope and satisfaction and are determined to become a good citizen to serve his/her Motherland.