

BA.Non CBCS

B.A 1st Sem (M)

1.1. Name of the Course: POLITICAL THEORY-I

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of political theory

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic concept of political theory
- II. Learn about: various dimensions of political theory
- III. To know: various concepts ,issues and ideologies of political theory

B.A 1st Sem (M)

1.2. Name of the Course: POLITICS IN INDIA-I

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of Indian politics

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: constitutional background of Indian polity
- II. Learn about: various organs of Indian government and their functioning
- III. To know: various powers functions and constitutional positions of different organs.

B.A 1st Sem (pass course)

1.1. Name of the Course: POLITICAL THEORY

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of political theory

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic concept of political theory
- II. Learn about: various dimensions of political theory
- III. To know: various concepts ,issues and ideologies of political theory

B.A 2nd Sem (M)

2.1. Name of the Course: POLITICAL THEORY-II

This paper aims to introduce students the Emerging issues of political theory

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: emerging issues of political theory
- II. Learn about: various dimensions of political theory in the context of third world
- III. To know: various concepts, issues and dimensions justice development and democracy.

2.2. Name of the Course: POLITICS IN INDIA-II

This paper aims to introduce students the Emerging issues of Indian politics

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: working of Indian polity
- II. Learn about: various aspects of centre state relations party systems and election system in India.
- III. To know: electoral diversification in Indian polity..

B.A 2nd Sem (pass course)

1.2. Name of the Course: POLITICS IN INDIA

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of Indian politics

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: constitutional background of Indian polity
- II. Learn about: various organs of Indian government and their functioning

- III. To know: various powers functions and constitutional positions of different organs.

B.A 3rd Sem (M)

3.1. Name of the Course: international relations-I

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of International relations

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: evolution of International relations
- II. Learn about: various approaches and basic concepts of International relations
- III. To know: about the two world wars and cold war as well as post cold war scenario in international relations.

B.A 3rd Sem (M)

3.2. Name of the Course: PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION-I

This paper aims to introduce students the interface between public policy and administration in india

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: fundamentals of public administration
- II. Learn about: various concepts theories of administration
- III. To know: about the issues of decentralization ,administrative management and structure of organisation

B.A 3rd Sem (pass course)

3.1. Name of the Course: international relations-I

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of International relations

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: evolution of International relations
- II. Learn about: various approaches and basic concepts of International relations
- III. To know: about the two world wars and cold war as well as post cold war scenario in international relations.

B.A 4th Sem (M)

4.1. Name of the Course: international relations-II

This paper aims to introduce students with the basic intellectual tools for understanding of International relations

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: key contemporary global issues in International relations
- II. Learn about: foreign policy ,united nations, security and its different dimensions and global economy in International relations
- III. To know: about the various emerging issues in international relations.

4.2. Name of the Course: PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION-II

This paper aims to introduce students the interface between public policy and administration in India

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: fundamentals of Personnel and financial administration
- II. Learn about: various issues regarding functioning of administration in India.
- III. To know: about personnel financial development administration and control over administration.

B.A 4th Sem (pass course)

4.1. Name of the Course: international relations-II

This paper aims to introduce students with the basic intellectual tools for understanding of International relations

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: key contemporary global issues in International relations

- II. Learn about: foreign policy ,united nations, security and its different dimensions and global economy in International relations
- III. To know: about the various emerging issues in international relations.

B.A5th SEM (M)

5.1. Name of the Course: WESTERN POLITICAL THINKERS

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of western political thought

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations of western political thought.
- II. Learn about: the manner in which the political questions were first posed.
- III. To know: various concepts and theories as developed by western political thinkers.

5.2. Name of the Course: select constitutions-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of British and American constitution in a comparative way.

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations of constitutionalism.
- II. Learn about: the working of American and British constitution.
- III. To know: Various aspects of constitution and basics of American and British constitution in a comparative way.

5.3. Name of the Course: GENERAL SOCIOLOGY-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of General sociology

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: fundamentals of sociology.
- II. Learn about: basic concepts and approaches to sociology.
- III. To know: various concepts and methods of sociology and social stratification.

5.4. Name of the Course: contemporary political issues-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Contemporary political issues

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: contemporary political issues around the globe.
- II. Learn about: various global issues and international efforts to deal with the same.
- III. To know: various aspects of terrorism, environment, gender and human development. .

5.5. Name of the Course: political sociology-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of Political sociology

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations of political sociology.
- II. Learn about: evolution of political sociology as a subject of study with its various areas.
- III. To know: historical development, political culture, socialization and political mobility.

5.6. Name of the Course: DEMOCRACY IN INDIA-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of Democracy in India

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations Democracy in Indian perspective.
- II. Learn about: the manner in which democracy is being operationalised in india.
- III. To know: concept of democracy. democracy in india and its nature.

B.A5th SEM (pass course)

5.1 Name of the Course: PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION-I

This paper aims to introduce students the interface between public policy and administration in India

Course outcome Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: fundamentals of public administration
- II. Learn about: various concepts theories of administration
- III. To know: about the issues of decentralization ,administrative management and structure of organization

5.2. Name of the Course: select constitutions-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of British and American constitution in a comparative way.

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: Basic foundations of constitutionalism.
- V. Learn about: the working of American and British constitution.
- VI. To know: Various aspects of constitution and basics of American and British constitution in a comparative way.

B.A6th SEM (M)

6.1. Name of the Course: INDIAN POLITICAL THINKERS

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of Indian political thought

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations of Indian political thought.
- II. Learn about: the manner in which the political questions were first posed.
- III. To know: various concepts and theories as developed by Indian political thinkers.

6.2. Name of the Course: select constitutions-II

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of Chinese and swiss constitution in a comparative way.

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: Basic foundations of Chinese and swiss constitution.
- II. Learn about: the working of Chinese and swiss constitution.
- III. To know: Various aspects of constitution and basics of Chinese and swiss constitution in a comparative way.

6.3. Name of the Course: GENERAL SOCIOLOGY-II

This paper aims to introduce students the Key concepts of General sociology

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: key concepts of sociology.
- II. Learn about: basic concepts and approaches to sociology.
- III. To know: various concepts of sociology like culture, social control, social change and socialization.

6.4. Name of the Course: contemporary political issues-I

This paper aims to introduce students the Contemporary political issues

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: contemporary political issues around the globe.
- II. Learn about: various global issues and international efforts to deal with the same.
- III. To know: various aspects of feminism, neo-colonialism, Religious fundamentalism and multi-culturalism etc..

6.5. Name of the Course: political sociology-II

This paper aims to introduce students the Foundations of Political sociology

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: Basic foundations of political sociology.
- V. Learn about: evolution of political sociology as a subject of study with its various areas.
- VI. To know: historical development, political culture, socialization and political mobility.

6.6. Name of the Course: DEMOCRACY IN INDIA-I

This paper aims to introduce students the basic principles of Democracy in India

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: Basic principles of Democracy in Indian perspective.
- V. Learn about: the critical perspectives of democracy in India.
- VI. To know: concept of democracy, Democracy in India and its various aspects..

B.A6th SEM (pass course)

6.1 Name of the Course: PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION-II

This paper aims to introduce students the interface between public policy and administration in India

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I) understand: fundamentals of Personnel and financial administration
- II) Learn about: various issues regarding functioning of administration in India.
- III) To know: about personnel financial development administration and control over administration.

6.2. Name of the Course: PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION-II

This paper aims to introduce students the interface between public policy and administration in India

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- I. Understand: fundamentals of Personnel and financial administration
- II. Learn about: various issues regarding functioning of administration in India.
- III. To know: about personnel financial development administration and control over administration.

BA.CBCS

B.A 1st Sem (M)

1.1. Name of the Course: UNDERSTANDING POLITICAL THEORY

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of political theory

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: Basic concept of political theory
- V. Learn about: various dimensions of political theory
- VI. To know: various concepts ,issues and ideologies of political theory

1.2. Name of the Course: CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT AND DEMOCRACY IN INDIA

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of Indian politics

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: constitutional background of Indian polity
- V. Learn about: various organs of Indian government and their functioning
- VI. To know: various powers functions and constitutional positions of different organs.

B.A 1st Sem (pass course / GENERIC ELECTIVE)

1.1. Name of the Course: AN INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL THEORY

This paper aims to introduce students the fundamentals of political theory

Course out come

At the end of the course a student will be able to

- IV. Understand: Basic concept of political theory
- V. Learn about: various dimensions of political theory
- VI. To know: various concepts ,issues and ideologies of political theory